COMPLETING THE FORM

For the purposes of fire safety and prevention, every exhibition stand must be put together in compliance with the EcoHouse and Veronafiere General and Technical Regulations and all legal requirements.

In particular, installers must provide details of the materials with fire reaction classifications used in the stands.

Therefore, for EVERY exhibition stand, the installer must prepare a dossier showing all of the information required in an orderly, numbered and legible manner, as described below:

- For all materials with fire reaction classifications (curtains, carpets, upholstered materials, intumescent protective coatings and treated panels):

- The manufacturer's declaration of conformity
- Ministerial approval or a test certificate for the material from a certification organization

The dossier must contain the following:

- At the front, a completed, signed copy of this form

- Copies of all of the documents listed on this form. The following applies for all enclosed documents:

- If there are a number of sheets, they must be stapled together
- In the upper right corner of the first page, the identifying number used in the column of this form must be clearly displayed

FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THE PREVENTION AND SAFETY REGULATIONS

If Piemmeti SpA and Veronafiere become aware of failure to comply with these rules or the EcoHouse and Veronafiere General and Technical Regulations, they will take precautionary measures which may include ordering part or all of stands to be dismantled and the stands being declared unfit. In the event of failure to comply with the safety and prevention measures, Veronafiere will be entitled to:

- Ban the installing company that failed to comply with the measures from operating in the exhibition centre grounds
- Prohibit the exhibitor from participating in events that take place in Verona exhibition centre
